She touched many lives that came through the justice system and formed many trusting relationships with judges and lawyers. Her leadership and dedication helped deliver justice to citizens in South Carolina. Alma fully embodied the verse (KJV) Matthew 25:40, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." After retirement, she felt that her work was not complete. She joined the Brittain Law Firm led by Tommy Brittain, a devoted friend whom she loved as a brother.
