

Betty Jane Henwood

June 30, 1942 - June 22, 2020

Betty Jane Henwood passed from this world on June 22nd, 2020 in Myrtle Beach, SC at the age of 77.

She was born to Harry and Viola Levine on June 30th, 1942 and raised in Mount Vernon, New York. She was the baby amongst her siblings, Robert, Edwin, Charles, Albert and her only sister, Beverly. Years later, she moved to Long Island and eventually met and married Stephen Mikle. Together they had three children, Stephen, Scott and Kimberly.

Many years later, she met and married Robert C. Henwood whom she spent the majority of her life with until his death in 2015.

Betty was a beautiful woman full of an abundance of Strength, Wisdom, and Love. Her strength was unwavering in the face of adversity. She was always sharp as a tack, offering advice to help and better others. A guiding light to all that knew her. Betty's heart was filled with love for family, friends and all animals large and small.

Betty was a hard worker, choosing the medical field as a Nurse's Aide. She cared for and helped many people who were elderly, sick or hurt. She was filled with the necessities for such a demanding and tough occupation. She was known to be one "tough cookie."

Betty loved to travel. She enjoyed gardening and collecting antiques. She enjoyed certain shows like, Dancing with the Stars and The Bachelor. Most of all, she loved and appreciated her pets over the years.

Betty has four grandchildren, Jade Elizabeth (28 years old), Kyle Stephen (26 years old), Christopher James (23 years old), and Kelsey Justine (11 years old).

Now, with her passing, we must turn and look within ourselves to find the seeds she planted of Strength, Wisdom and Love. Betty will be missed greatly, until we can meet again.
