“ To the Randall and Hourihan families,

Craig was the loving husband of my high school classmate, Mary (Hourihan) Randall and even as he fought his battle with cancer, he lovingly cared for Mary who has her own challenging health battle.

Though I didn't know Craig, I feel I got to know something of him through Facebook messages back and forth from Mary.

Even at this very belated point, I extend my sympathies to your family and hope that Mary can still feel his love and protection.
