

Frank Lynn Van Voorhis

June 17, 1941 - February 8, 2026

Frank Lynn Van Voorhis, age 84, went to be with his Lord and Savior on Sunday, February 8, 2026. He was born in Hillsdale, Michigan to Herman Victor Van Voorhis and Carrie Elizabeth McCarty Van Voorhis.

Surviving are his wife of 66 years, Cleona M. Van Voorhis; three daughters: Cathy James (Doug), Christina S. Van Voorhis, and Amy Edge (Mark); son-in-law, John Anderson; nine grandchildren: Lyndsay McKeown, Lauren Terry, Jordan Zerr, Jake Anderson, Ryan Crain, Bailey Edge, Emily Edge, Christy Worms, and Patrick James; and 16 great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by daughter, Cheryl Lynn Anderson, as well as his siblings, Marian Strang, Shirley Wade, Gerald Van Voorhis, and Ron Van Voorhis.

Mr. Van Voorhis started his career in construction in Michigan as a bricklayer for Bracy and Jahr, Inc. and eventually oversaw large development projects throughout the United States for American Central, an affiliate of International Paper Company. He later settled in Conway, where he became a custom residential builder. After retirement, he enjoyed flying with his good friend, Frank, and visits from his cousin Jim, who was like a brother to him, and who also enjoyed their flying adventures. He was very talented at woodworking and crafted beautiful furniture, birdhouses and lawn art. He also enjoyed bird watching and photography.

In the community, he was known for his integrity and quality of work. In his home, he was known for his gentle spirit, quiet strength, patience, and a loving nature. He was treasured by his family and will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Mr. Frank's memory to Florence Baptist Temple, 2308 S. Irby Street, Florence, SC 29505.

Services will be private.
