

Gloria S Lee

September 18, 1944 - January 9, 2026

Ms. Gloria Scappaticci Lee, 81, passed away on January 9, 2026, in Stuart, Florida. Born on September 18, 1944, in Savannah, Georgia, she lived a life marked by dedication, creativity, and unwavering support for those around her.

Gloria built a respected career at Eversource, where she was known as a dedicated employee and held in high regard by her peers. Her commitment to her work reflected the same steadfastness she brought to all areas of her life.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Gloria found joy and fulfillment in artistic expression and physical wellness. She loved to paint and became quite an accomplished artist over the years. Her passion for yoga led her to become a licensed instructor, sharing the practice with others and embracing its principles throughout her life.

Family was central to Gloria's world. She is lovingly remembered by her son, William Krock; grandsons Dustin Krock and Dylan Krock; nieces Michele, Rhonda, Amy, and Kim; nephew Jimmy; and her brother John Scappaticci. She was predeceased by her sister Donna J. Cole, mother Doris Hewitt, and father Joseph Scappaticci.

Gloria was deeply loved by her family and friends. She was always there for them—offering strength during difficult times and celebrating alongside them in moments of joy. Her presence brought comfort and stability to those fortunate enough to know her.

May her memory bring peace to all who cherished her. A Memorial Gathering will be held on April 18, 2026, at 02:00 PM at Hillcrest Cemetary 1000 HWY 544 Conway SC 29526
