Obituary for James Hawkins

Mr. James W. "Hawk" Hawkins, Jr. died on Friday, December 12 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center in Myrtle Beach following a brief illness. He was the husband of Mary Templeton-Hawkins with whom he shared more than 63 years of marriage.

Born December 30, 1932, in Laurens, SC he was the son of the late James W. Sr. and Margie Nix-Hawkins. He was a graduate of Laurens High School, attended Miami-Dade Community College, and earned a B.A. from Barry University. He worked as a Postal Carrier and Postal Inspector and as a legal administrator in a law firm. He is a former member of the SC Jaycees, the Omar Shrine of Mt. Pleasant, the Conway Country Club and he coached youth football and baseball where twice they won the state championship. In spare time he enjoyed golf and car racing. Hawk was a proud member of the Army Reserve National Guard, reaching the rank of Master Sergeant and continued serving in the SC State Guard where he rose through the ranks to Lt. Col. and served as a Battalion Commander.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a daughter, Carolyn Teresa Hicks of Conway; a son, James Richie Hawkins of Miami; a grandson, Aaron Hicks; and two great grandchildren, Leona and James Hicks. He was predeceased by his eldest son, Dr. W. Roger Hawkins.
