Mrs. Davis was born in Anna, Illinois, a daughter of the late Harold Jimmy Frick and Esther Ethel Bourland Frick.

Along with her parents, Mrs. Davis was predeceased by her husband Harold Eugene Davis, of Conway; and sister Mary Darlene Frick Light of Dongola, Illinois.

Mrs. Davis was raised on a farm in Southern Illinois. She grew up to peruse a career in the nursing field. She loved helping and taking care of people. Just her touch could bring comfort and her words would bring peace. It was at her job working as a nurse taking care of patients, where a tall, dark, and handsome man in a soldier's uniform caught her eye. It was love at first sight. For the next 50 years, Janice and Harold Eugene Davis spent loving, laughing and building a life together.

Janice loved antiques, gardening, visiting the farm back home, and being around her family. Her laugh was one you can never forget and was contagious. She would give everything to bring a smile to your face and make sure you left with a full belly.

Janice and Harold Davis had a love that was one like in The Notebook- 13 days after Harold, Janice joined him hand in hand in Heaven to be together.
