“ Grandma Molly is someone I will never forget. She was always there to help, listen, and/or comfort those in need. She loved unconditionally and with her whole heart. She did not gossip. She lifted people up instead of breaking them down. She looked for the good in everyone.

She did not get a lot of visitors, but when she did she made sure they felt welcome. She loved to talk a lot. She had so many stories of her childhood, of my childhood and about my granddaddy. She loved to talk about him. He was her one true love and she was his. Now they are together in paradise.

My daughter and I cared for my grandma for around 10 years. She was grateful for everything, but most of all she loved being with us. We went on vacations, visited family, and took drives from time to time just to get out of the house.

Till the moment she closed her eyes for the last time, she was grateful and she praised and thanked God for everything. She went out of this world just as sweet and precious as she came into it. I miss her terribly, but I know one day I will see her again. What an awesome day that will be.
