

Norma Brown Bonhotal

January 23, 1930 - September 21, 2018

Norma Grace Brown Bonhotal, 88, widow of Lawrence Bonhotal, passed away Friday, September 21, 2018 at Tideland's Georgetown Memorial Hospital.

A graveside funeral service will be held at 2PM on Wednesday, September 26, 2018 in Hillcrest Cemetery in Conway, South Carolina.

Born in Elmira, New York on January 23, 1930, she was a daughter of the late Harold Cory Brown and Josephine Flick Brown. Mrs. Bonhotal was a devoted member of Church of the Resurrection in Murrells Inlet for 22 years. She volunteered at Grand Strand Hospital for over 20 years. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother who will be dearly missed.

Surviving are two sons, Greg Bonhotal (Julie) of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin and Ken Bonhotal (Susan) of Lake Lure, North Carolina; two daughters, Lori O'Bryan (Ken) of Silverthorne, Colorado and Debbie Mann (Mark) of Georgetown, South Carolina; five grandchildren, Joshua, Ian, Evan, Chelsea, and Chris; one brother, Bob Brown of Elmira, New York.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the charity of your choice.