

Ortelle Lee Werner

February 12, 1949 - February 25, 2023

Ortelle Werner (Nickname: Orlette)

I can only say this was one of the most strong and brave women you could ever know. She literally loved everyone, had a smile for you always. She loved golf and played on leagues in Ohio and with her husband in Myrtle Beach.

She loved her 16 acre mini farm in Ohio where she had llamas, goats, chickens and over 400 muskovie ducks that were all pets. She also had a dog and several cats that she adored.

She never saw the bad side of anyone. She loved cutting the grass on her Kabota diesel tractor with a brush hog behind or on her water cooled john deer.

She also loved being a beautician. She started out as a hair dresser then an instructor at the Fairview Beauty Academy in Fairview Park, Ohio. She then purchased the business and property and became sole owner with 7 employees. She helped 100's of young people start careers.

She was an asset to any community she lived in. She and her husband loved the Myrtle Beach area where they vacationed for years. They eventually bought a home there where they lived happily for the last 9 years.

She is survived by her husband Dennis Werner, son Sean Werner, sister's Patsy Pedro, Arlease Butcher, brother's Calvin Henry, Ronnie Henry and Gary Henry.

Deceased are her mother Mildred Henry, step-father Robert Henry, biological father Charles Bryant, also deceased is her sister Judy Gibson and brother Robert Henry.

Internment to be private, memorial service to be held on a later date. Her ashes will be placed in a niche at Hill Crest Cemetery in Conway, SC across from the Coastal Carolina University.

Also, if anyone is interested, her favorite music piece for calming was John Barry (Filme Proposta Indecente) more upbeat was Just a Fool by Christina Aguilera and Blake Shelton. Dance me to the End of Love by Leonard Cohen and See you Again by Carrie Underwood.

Donations should be given to The American Cancer Society (<https://www.cancer.org>)
